ORDER:

Challenging the action of the third respondent in not implementing the direction of the second respondent, the present Writ Petition is filed.

No right of the petitioners is infringed so as to issue a Writ of Mandamus if the direction of the second respondent is not implemented by the third respondent. The appropriate remedy is to file a representation before the second respondent. Therefore, without going into merits of the case, the Writ Petition is disposed of directing the petitioners to approach the second respondent seeking redressal, which shall be considered in accordance with law. No costs.
